Enclosures

Dated 19th November 1940

SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Weaving Demonstration Centre at Bilchodu was transferred to Horakere Dyavapura in Holalkere Taluk. The Weaving Inspector now recommends that the yarn depot at Bilchodu may also be transferred to that place. It was decided at the meeting of the Weaving Inspectors held on 26-10-1940 (a copy of the proceedings already submitted to Government) that the yarn depots should be coupled with the activities of the demonstration parties. This will also minimise supervision charges.

Agreeably to the above principle, I have authorised the transfer of the yarn depot at Bilchodu to Horakere Dyavapura to which place the Weaving Demonstration Centre is transferred. I request that approval of Government may kindly be obtained to the above proposals.

In this connection I request that I may be permitted to transfer the yarn depots from one place to the other according to the needs of the weavers without approaching Government every time for approval.

I have the honor to be,
S i r,
